General Assembly

Distr.: General
11 February 2015

Sixty-ninth session
Agenda item 128

Resolution adopted by the General Assembly on 29 December 2014

[without reference to a Main Committee (A/69/L.42 and Add.1)]

69/246. Investigation into the conditions and circumstances resulting in the tragic death of Dag Hammarskjöld and of the members of the party accompanying him

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 1759 (XVII) of 26 October 1962,

Acknowledging the report of the Commission of Jurists on the Inquiry into the Death of Dag Hammarskjöld,[1]

Considering the note by the Secretary-General[2] with his assessment that the report of the Hammarskjöld Commission includes new evidence,

1. Requests the Secretary-General to appoint an independent panel of experts to examine new information and to assess its probative value;

2. Encourages Member States to release any relevant records in their possession and to provide to the Secretary-General relevant information related to the death of Dag Hammarskjöld and of the members of the party accompanying him;

3. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its seventieth session on the progress made.

77th plenary meeting
29 December 2014
